EPS SECURITY ADDS SECURITY CONSULTANT TO PETOSKEY

PETOSKEY, Mich., Nov. 29, 2010—Engineered Protection Systems, Inc. (EPS Security), West Michigan’s leading commercial and residential security company, has added sales veteran Ben Sandtveit to its team of commercial and residential security consultants. Sandtveit will operate from the local EPS Security office at 2200 East Mitchell Street in Petoskey.

Sandtveit has nearly 10 years of experience as a sales consultant for a variety of industries including technical equipment and media contract development. He is a former buyer for Honeywell Sensing & Control, the leading global provider of hardware equipment for the security industry.

“Ben is a proven consultant with experience on both the technical equipment and sales sides of the business,” said David Hood, director of sales and marketing for EPS Security. “We’re anticipating he’ll be a terrific addition to our Northern Region team.”

Sandtveit lives in Boyne City. He is a proud graduate of Central Michigan University.
